CITY of LONDON CENTRAL MARKETS ASSOCIATION.

PRESIDENT—JAMES BLACKETT, Esq.
Vice-Presidents—Thomas M. Clarke, Esq.
Hon. Secretaries—James J. Millard, Esq.
Solicitor—Mr. James Aslatt.

OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

1. The continuance of the City of London Markets in or near their present central position.

2. Equitable compensation for all losses of injury occasioned upon any removal of the existing markets.

3. Such improvements and regulations in the construction and government of those markets, and of their late thoroughfares, as may be found advisable by the Government Commissioners of the Sanitary Commissioners.

4. Protection of the common interests of the producer and consumer against any unreasonable charge in the shape of toll or otherwise.

The project for a New Central Cattle and Meat Market is a new family bill on the public. The Association invite all parties interested in a question of settlement of this great question to inspect the Model, at their room, at the west end of Cornhill, where they can make inquiry, and obtain some explanation.

The reasons which influence the Association in supporting the amended project of the Corporation of London may be gathered from the following brief summary of clauses which that plan proposes to be adopted. To maintain in the City of London, for the benefit of the citizens, a trade turning annually over sterling commodities to clear twelve acres of ground now occupied by certain offensive to the senses, and prejudicial to health, the haunts of unnecessary and pernicious and to substitute for the present, probably the worst district in the metropolis in a sanitary point of view, an open space larger than Lincoln's-inn-fields occupied only two nights in the week: to abolish on this site and on the site of Newgate Market no less than eight-nine known and admitted nuisances; to remove all the present inconveniences and casualties, by altering the area of the Cattle Market, so as to afford some protection from the largest market ever held; to take powers for preventing the Sunday evening desecration by altering the days of the markets; to provide against the inconveniences occasioned by cattle passing through the streets in the day time. By closing the market at an early hour in the morning; to withdraw the market from all existing thoroughfares, and to exclude all external traffic by enclosing it in a perimeter of an enclosed place, with an adequate supply of water for the cattle and flushing the market the moment it is cleared; to convey the washings of the market and other refuse into the intercepting sewer of the Metropolitan Commission, which passes within one yard of the proposed site; and to make provision for the latest sanitary improvements, by extensive public abattoirs under the police inspection, which will gradually supersede the two slaughter-houses, which the improvements will leave in the vicinity; to abolish all other and immediate all underground slaughter-houses; to close away the nuisance of Newgate Market from Newgate-street and Paternoster-row, and to carry its business entirely to a site adjoining the proposed Cattle Market, in Victoria-street; to provide, upon the abandoned site of Smithfield, Leadenhall-town for the poor who will be driven out, dwellings and workshops, the rents of which will be double the outlay, and the ground rent to the City, in lieu of the tolls of the cattle and provisions of the markets; to effect these changes, so far as the public market is concerned, by an increased toll, amounting to scarcely more than a halfpenny on a pound of meat; the Corporation being all the other public objects on their own responsibility, and from their own resources.

The Association have the gratification to announce, that they have by their efforts obtained from the Corporation valuable concessions on some of the most important of the above points. They submit to the public with unbounded confidence that the scheme is calculated to satisfy the trade and to meet the objections so reasonably urged against existing arrangements and that without the possibility of raising the price to any reasonable extent of an article of consumption indispensable alike to rich and poor; and they throw themselves and their cause upon the liberal support of a public who are deeply interested in the question. The Association avail themselves of this mode of thanking their numerous visitors who have attended the Model Room, for the frank statements of their views and opinions, and the candid and useful advice on in almost every instance of those who have returned. They desire to thank also, numerous anonymous friends for valuable suggestions and liberal contributions which the Association cannot acknowledge but by public acknowledgment.

All further communications are requested to be made to the Secretary, 27, Milk-street, Cheapside.

The following publications of the Association may be had of Effingham Wilson, Royal Exchange; at 27, Milk-street; or at the Model Room, Cheapside:—

"An Appeal to the British Public; or the Abuses of Smithfield Market and the Advantages of a New Central Cattle Market instead thereof." Price 1d.

Part I. of "The Opinions of the Public Journals on the proposed Central Site and Model Meat Market for the Metropolis." Price 2d.

"Shall the Cattle Market for London be Central or Suburban? a Dialogue." Price 1d.

In a few days will be published, "The Sanitary Aspect of the New Cattle Market Question."

Committee Rooms, 27, Milk-street, February 7, 1851.
